Rachel Orbach is an associate in Herrick's Real Estate Department.

Rachel focuses on various aspects of commercial real estate in the New York area including development, construction, financing, acquisitions and sales. Rachel has experience representing developers and property owners throughout the life cycle of the construction process, including drafting and negotiating construction contracts between owners and various construction professionals. Rachel also works with property owners on transactions involving access to neighboring properties during construction, including drafting and negotiating construction license agreements and compelling court ordered access to such properties under New York's Real Property Action and Proceeding Law.

Rachel is admitted to practice law in New York and New Jersey.
