A WHO'S WHO OF REAL ESTATE INDUSTRY LEADERS GATHER TO CELEBRATE HERRICK, FEINSTEIN'S 85TH ANNIVERSARY AND A RESURGENT MARKET

New York, June 11, 2013 – On June 6th, more than 300 leading commercial real estate developers, owners, financiers, brokers and government officials joined Herrick, Feinstein LLP at the Eventi Hotel, in honor of the firm's 85th anniversary and to toast the bright outlook for New York City's commercial real estate market.

"For 85 years our firm has been at the forefront of real estate in New York, having played a role in nearly every iconic property and pivotal development – from the Empire State Building and Yankee Stadium to the revitalization of Times Square and the High Line," said Real Estate Department Co-Chair, Dennis W. Russo. "We are delighted to celebrate this milestone with the clients who have entrusted us with their major deals, and look forward to expanding these long-term relationships," added Real Estate Department Co-Chair Scott Mollen.

Herrick's Real Estate Department is widely regarded as one of the leading commercial real estate practices in the New York region. Named a "real estate powerhouse" by Crain's New York Business, the 50-member group of attorneys and urban planners represents public and private companies on a full spectrum of issues, including financing and acquisition, land use and zoning, development and construction, hospitality, distressed debt, leasing, litigation and government relations.

Of note, Herrick real estate attorneys have recently advised on numerous high-profile projects and transactions, including Toll Brothers' joint venture development of Brooklyn Bridge Park, the sale of the Woolworth Building, the Republic of Turkey's development of a new Consulate and Mission in Midtown Manhattan, numerous matters involving the construction of the Second Avenue Subway and a significant mortgage financing for the Empire State Building.
