Christopher is an associate in Herrick's Corporate Department where he focuses on corporate governance, securities and mergers and acquisitions. His experience includes negotiating term sheets, drafting purchase agreements, ancillary agreements and disclosure schedules. He has provided support for growth-stage companies by drafting voting, subscription and shareholders' agreements. He also has counseled entities in the private equity and venture capital context with respect to investment strategies, business reorganizations and form subsidiaries.

Christopher's experience as a corporate employee, and later a transactional attorney within an AM Law 100 firm and a mid-sized Manhattan firm, provides him with an in-depth understanding of the legal and corporate issues facing the modern business. In addition, Christopher's extensive training — covering both continental Europe and the United States — combined with practical, foreign-language capabilities ensures that he provides a truly global perspective.

Represented Leading Producer of Golf Equipment and Apparel in Sale of Business Transaction

Represented Sun Mountain Sports, Inc. ("Sun Mountain"), a leading producer of golf equipment and apparel, in a sale of business transaction to a private investment firm, Solace Capital Partners.

Founded in 1981, Sun Mountain is a pioneer in the golf industry known for its best-in-class brand and many innovations in golf bags, push carts, and outerwear. Sun Mountain's products are sold in national retail stores, specialty golf stores, and pro shops, as well as online and internationally. The sale did not include Sun Mountain Motor Sports, which produces motorized golf cars under the Finn Scooters brand.

Three Ocean Partners served as financial advisor to Sun Mountain.
