Laura Perdomo Díaz is an associate in Herrick's Corporate Department where she advises and assists issuers, underwriters, borrowers, lenders and service providers on leveraged financing, commercial lending, corporate financing and asset-based lending transactions in a broad range of industries.

Laura's work includes negotiating, drafting and reviewing transaction and related documents, managing and conducting due diligence, and facilitating closings.

Prior to joining Herrick, Laura was an associate with Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP where she worked on complex private and public structured finance and securitization transactions involving a wide variety of asset classes. Laura was also previously a vice president in the legal department of a global financial services firm where she negotiated Master Agreements for OTC derivatives, cleared swaps, futures and repo transactions.
